REGLERHAUS

URBAN OASIS WITH YEAR-ROUND ELEGANCE

The 'Reglerhaus' - a historic gaswork control building - was a key facility within the plant, housing pressure regulators and control mechanisms to ensure a stable and safe distribution of gas.

An urban oasis and green retreat: this lovingly restored historic building offers space for exclusive dinners and small meetings for up to 48 people.

The adjoining pocket garden is ideal for open-air breaks or informal gatherings and has direct access to the EUREF-Pool.

The culinary experience is provided by the team led by top chef Thomas Kammeier, who offers exclusive menus and customized catering concepts on request.
