EUREF DOME & ATRIUM

OUR UPCYCLED PRODUCT FROM BERLIN

The EUREF Dome was originally designed for the 2006 FIFA World Cup in Berlin, was later housed in the Schöneberg Gasometer, and was finally rebuilt on the EUREF-Campus in Düsseldorf.

The dome-shaped interior, with an impressive height of 21 meters, now offers the perfect venue for flexible and innovative event formats. The light-filled, green atrium is the ideal complement for a wide range of event formats.
